

The swap-board walkthrough should include a volunteer who cannot take evening shifts. Show the time before the accept button and keep their availability note visible while they compare offers.