

The bluff station reported pattern B during a silent interval. Keep that false detection in the trial sheet; excluding it would make the horn seem easier to identify than it was.